Counseling Services is offering several exciting groups this fall. Groups typically consist of 4-10 students meeting weekly. Registered students are eligible for group participation. There is no cost. Student fees provide the funding. For more information about group counseling services including individual counseling, visit https://shcs.ucdavis.edu/services/groups.

Students are asked to make a commitment to attend groups each week for the duration of the quarter.

If you are interested in a group, please call SHCS appointment desk at (530) 752-0871 for an initial appointment. To participate in a group, a student must meet with a Counseling Services staff and be assigned to the group except for the drop-in groups or workshops. Counseling Services groups are listed below. All groups meet online unless listed as meeting somewhere else.

To receive an initial consultation or get more information call Student Health and Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871.

Mondays:

Phoenix Rising: A Support Group for Survivors of Sexual Trauma
2:10 – 3:30 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitator: Cheryl Samuleson

This process-oriented group is open to undergraduate and graduate students who are survivors of sexual abuse, sexual assault, and/or sexual trauma experienced in childhood or as adults. The goal of this group is to provide a healing, empowering, and safe space for survivors to discuss and receive support around a range of issues including relationships, intimacy, sexuality, safety, mind-body awareness, balance, sense of control, communication, and trust. Attention will also be given to providing some self-regulation and mind-body awareness skills as appropriate. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-2349 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.
Healing Through Connections: Graduate Student Therapy Group
3:10 - 4:30 pm  |  TAO Zoom
Facilitators: Tegan Adams & Brian Shi

This is a process-oriented group open to all graduate students. The goal of this group is to provide a safe and confidential space for graduate students to receive support and to gain perspective and insight into themselves and their relationships. Themes are broad and vary – they have included balancing academic and family life, self-care, family and intimate partner relationship concerns, advisor-advisee relationship concerns, procrastination, perfectionism, depression, anxiety, cultural adjustment, and issues of oppression (e.g., sexism, racism, heterosexism, ageism). If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

“The Journey” Therapy Group
3:10-4:30 am | TAO Zoom
Facilitators: Chris Le & Liliana Campos

This adventurous general therapy group is designed to foster greater self-awareness and more satisfying relationships by becoming more aware of your thoughts and feelings, exploring how your background and upbringing affect your relationships, developing interpersonal skills, practicing giving and receiving support, and cultivating more compassion for yourself and others. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

Tuesdays:

Women’s Group
2:10 - 3:30 pm  |  TAO Zoom
Facilitators: Bai-Yin Chen & Danielle Kozlowski

This group is for graduate and undergraduate women who would like to share and explore issues that have a daily effect on their lives. Participants will also receive and provide support to realize an empowered living. Topics for discussion include: self-esteem, responsibility for others and need for self-care, identity, family, relationship and intimacy, communication, academic pressure, and life transitions. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.
Undergraduates Career Exploration Group
3:00 – 4:30 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitator: Katie Silbiger

Career decision-making is an ongoing process made more effective within an interactive, supportive group approach. Group members are undergraduates who will identify how their values, interests, preferences and satisfying skills relate to occupations of interest and expanded career options. A focus on personal strengths and common experiences of uncertainty helps enable group members to better understand internal conflicts and external obstacles. Please note total cost of assessments is $45 and expected time commitment for activities outside of the 6 session group times is approximately 1-2 hours per week. If you are interested in participating in this group, please contact the Career Counseling Program at career counseling@shcs.ucdavis.edu and you will be emailed information about the orientation to the group.

Grief Support Group
3:30 - 4:50 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitator: Anne Han

Death of a loved one is a major life event. When school demands, social/ family expectations, and jobs/internships don’t seem to stop, they can compete for your attention and make it difficult to grieve. This online support group is open to undergraduate students who have lost a loved one and would appreciate a designated time and confidential space to focus on the mourning process. The goals of this group are to process loss and grief, learn coping strategies through a multicultural lens, and build community with peers in a similar situation. Those new to grief are especially welcome. If seeking support for loss of your pet, feel free to consult with the facilitator. Pre-screening will be conducted at the beginning of the quarter. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

Wednesdays:

Lavender Connection: LGBTQ Student Support Group
10:00 - 11:20 am | TAO Zoom
Facilitators: Megan Brown & Billy Chan

This group is a support group for undergraduate and graduate students who are looking for a safe and confidential space to discuss issues related to being LGBTQ. The group will provide a supportive and affirming environment where students can share common experiences and increase their sense of understanding regarding their own gender identity, sexual identity, relationships with others, and sense of empowerment. Areas of focus may include the influence of cultural background and ethnic identity, fostering self-acceptance, stress management, coping skills, coming out to yourself & others, dating, spirituality, campus climate, and family relationships. All identities within the LGBTQ spectrum including those questioning are welcome! If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

Building Social Confidence
1:10 – 2:30 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitator: Javan Jean-Noel

Group members learn how to increase confidence in social situations by building social skills, the foundation for successful interpersonal relationships. Members develop effective communication skills, assertion skills, and social support—"community." Members also address their own individual goals, such as developing/maintaining friendships, dating, and confidence with academic assertion and public speaking. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

Nourish: The Body & The Self
3:10 – 4:30 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitators: Meghan Jones & Katie Silbiger

Concerned about your relationship with food or your perception of yourself? You are not alone. Explore your concerns and struggles while offering insight and support to others in a process-oriented therapy group. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

Mindfulness & Compassion Meditation Group
3:15 – 4:30 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitators: Elizabeth Schiveley

Mindfulness is about learning to experience life fully as it unfolds—noticing what is there. Compassion allows us to acknowledge emotional pain of ourselves and others. Through this practice, participants develop a greater sense of calm, connection, insight, and focus while letting go of the harsh inner critic that can keep us from fully living. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.
Thursdays:

Graduate Career Exploration Group
10:00 - 11:30 am | TAO Zoom
Facilitator: Danielle Kozlowski

This group is for graduate students who want to explore their career related preferences, identify the comparative fit of career options of interest or expand their consideration of possible careers. Group members will integrate data from their personal strengths, work and family perspectives, and career assessments with occupational information. Group members are asked to increase their exposure to occupational information and opportunities over the course of the term. Total cost for assessment package (includes Strong Interest Inventory, MBTI, Skillscan and Values card sorts) to grad students is $20 as GradPathways (Graduate Studies) is subsidizing $25 of the total $45 fee. Please note that expected time commitment for activities outside of the 6 session group times is approximately 1-2 hours per week. If you are interested in participating in this group, please contact the Career Counseling Program at career.counseling@shcs.ucdavis.edu and you will be emailed information about the orientation to the group.

Living with Chronic Medical Conditions and Disabilities Group
1:30 – 2:50 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitators: Hillary Alejo & Jon Schlinger

This group will be a safe and confidential place for undergrads and graduate students who have chronic illnesses, visible, or invisible disabilities to come together weekly to get and give support. The focus of group sessions is on whatever students bring up each week. Common themes discussed include self-care, celebration of accomplishments, coping skills, fostering self-acceptance, empowerment, pain management, feelings about social and academic barriers, boundaries, stress management, dating, family relationships, academic concerns, what it is like to interface with temporarily able bodied people, as well as managing multiple identities i.e. cultural background, gender, and ethnic identities. Most of all it will be a place where you can be fully who you are and discuss concerns and issues important to you with other people who have chronic illnesses, visible, or invisible disabilities. If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

Fridays:

In Lak’ech (A Chicana/Latina Women’s Therapy Group)
12:10 - 1:30 pm | TAO Zoom
Facilitator: Adriana Torres

Colonization refers to the process of a dominant culture settling among and establishing control over another culture, which can lead to social and systemic oppression of the colonized group. The goal of In Lak’ech is to decolonize the therapeutic encounter. By identifying and creating culturally appropriate methods and practices of healing, we free ourselves from Euro-Centric assumptions and prescriptions for our lives. Abandoning Western ideas of therapy groups, and apoyando our gente the way we know how, con dichos, cuentos, chistes, chisme y comida. In Lak’ech participants will be encouraged to explore topics such as Culture & Mental Health, Spirituality, Building Healthy Relationships, Homesickness, etc.

If you are interested in participating in this group, please call Counseling Services at (530) 752-0871 for an initial consultation or group screening appointment.

Support Group and Workshops with RSVP Requirement

Lighthouse Support Space
3:00 – 4:15 pm, Mondays, starting October 19th
Location: Zoom
Facilitator: Maia Huang

This online support space is for queer and trans folx to come together to create a safe, shared environment to build community and provide mutual support during these challenging times. For details about time and online meeting instructions, contact Maia Huang at mhuang@shcs.ucdavis.edu.

Veterinary Medicine Student Support Group
5:30 – 6:50 pm, Tuesdays
Facilitator: Zachary Ward

This is a supportive space to connect around the various issues impacting vet med student. For more information or to register to participate in this group contact Dr. Zachary Ward directly at zward@shcs.ucdavis.edu. After the second meeting of this semester-long series, the group will be closed.

Adelante Mujeres Support Group
1:00 - 2:30 pm, Wednesdays
Location: TAO Zoom
Session dates: October 14th to November 18th
Participants must RSVP and meet with facilitators prior to start date.
Facilitators: Roxana Reyes & Meghan Jones

Six-week sessions.
This group is designed to provide a safe and supportive environment to explore personal experiences on campus, gain emotional support, promote self-care, and enhance community building among Chicana/Latina students. This six-week session is free and students must agree to attend all six sessions to help ensure a rich group experience for themselves and other participants. Participants must schedule a consultation with the facilitator prior to the start date. Weekly topics will be decided by the group, but may include:

- Session 1 - Introductions and Mixer: An informal space to dialogue and get to know each other.
- Session 2 - Authentic Sisterhood: How to create sustainable, healthy relationships in our social and professional lives
- Session 3 – Alternative Mental Health: A Chicana perspective on managing mood and self care
- Session 4 - The Four Agreements: A Toltec secret to happiness and finding peace through balance
- Session 5 - The Maria Paradox: Navigating tradition in contemporary society
- Session 6 - Open Discussion and Close

For more information contact Roxana Reyes, MFT reyes@shcs.ucdavis.edu.

Wellness Wednesday Talking Circle - Coping Strategies for Native American Students

3:00 – 4:00 pm, Wednesdays, starting on October 14th
Location: Zoom
Facilitator: Tracy Thomas
To sign up and receive zoom link, send e-mail to Tracy Thomas at tthomas@ucdavis.edu

This is a supportive community talking circle for Native American students to learn coping strategies for handling academic, emotional, and social stressors. Each week we will offer a skill-building session to address specific issues that students are facing. There will be time throughout for Q&A and sharing of best practices.

Session objectives include:

- Learn how to reduce feelings of overwhelm
- Discover how to compartmentalize in a healthy way
- Gain tips on how to stay productive when your mind is distracted
- Participate in storytelling to manage negative emotions
- Develop interpersonal skills to advocate for yourself
- Discuss how to rediscover your own healing traditions
• Manage your time and reduce procrastination
• Learn how to talk to your support system about needs and boundaries
• Participate in a guided meditation and learn breathing techniques

Heart of Medicine (Virtual Edition): A Medical Student Support Group
5:30 pm - 6:30 pm, Bi-weekly Wednesdays
Facilitator: Stephen Simonson

A supportive space to connect around and explore the complexities of being a medical student. The goal of the group is to improve personal development while offering support and encouragement to your fellow student. This series of the group will be offered via an encrypted version of Zoom due to COVID-19 physical distancing guidelines. For more information or to register for this group contact Dr. Stephen Simonson at ssimonson@ucdavis.edu. After the second meeting of this 7 week series the group will be closed.

Mindfulness for Law Students Workshop
1:00 – 2:00 pm, Fridays, from September 4th to October 23rd, 2020
Location: Zoom
Facilitator: Margaret Lee

In conjunction with the King Hall Student Wellness Committee, this 8-week workshop will teach law students to use the tools of mindfulness and meditation to cultivate a steady and focused mind. The workshop will be based on the book, The Anxious Lawyer: An 8-Week Guide to a Joyful and Satisfying Law Practice Through Mindfulness and Meditation. For more information, please contact Dr. Margaret Lee at counseling@law.ucdavis.edu.

Dissertation/Thesis Support Group
Day/Time: TBD
Location: Zoom
Facilitator: Bai-Yin Chen

Are you struggling in completing your dissertation or thesis writing? This group is a support space for graduate students who have completed their research or data collection and are in the writing stage of their dissertation or thesis. The group will focus on goal setting, time management, motivation enhancement, problem-solving, stress management, and building other skills relevant to completing the dissertation or thesis. For more information or to register to participate, contact Dr. Bai-Yin Chen, Coordinator of Counseling Services for Graduate Students, at bychen@ucdavis.edu.
Drop-In Support Groups

Aggies for Recovery
6:30 – 7:30 pm, Thursdays
https://shcs.ucdavis.edu/recovery_resources
Location: TAO Zoom at https://ucdavis.zoom.us/j/98030131552

This is a peer-led support group. Aggie Rise’s mission is to promote recovery in institutions of higher education. The group aims to enhance the student experience by facilitating exciting and engaging activities for recovery-minded individuals. We also aim to educate students about the benefits of a recovery-based lifestyle. The objectives include Education, Recovery, Abstinence, and Open-Door Policy. We do movie nights, dinners, dancing, trips, and so much more! For more information please contact Stephanie Lake at 530-752-6334

You Got This Series

You Got This (YGT) consists of psycho-educational, skill building workshops designed to help build personal awareness, develop coping skills and promote self-care. For the Fall 2020 quarter, we will offer workshops on the following topics; Mindfulness, Coping with Emotions, Self-Care, and Coping with Anxiety.

The Mindfulness workshop combines evidence-based practices for more skillful management of a variety of concerns. Participants will practice mindfulness techniques in a low pressure, supportive environment.

Coping with Emotions is a workshop series that provides a brief overview of dialectical behavioral therapy (DBT) skills for distress tolerance, interpersonal effectiveness, and emotional regulation. This series utilizes evidence-based practices for creating connections, decreasing distress, and focusing on feelings. The modules are not sequential and do not need to be taken in any order. Participants that attend each of the three separate workshops will gain the most benefits. This series includes the following workshop titles: Decreasing Distress, Creating Connections, and Focusing on Feelings. As an additional benefit, this series has a fourth week of combing skills to focus on boosting your brainpower going into finals week. Click here for more workshop description details.

During the Self-Care workshop, students will learn about various self-care approaches and the health benefits linked to practicing good self-care. Students will have the opportunity to learn ways to infusing self-care practices into daily living.
Coping with Anxiety is a three-part workshop series that looks at anxiety through the lens of connection with the mind, body and present moment. This series utilizes evidence-based practices for coping with anxiety. The modules are not sequential, so that students can start the series at any point. Participants that attend each of the three separate workshops will gain the most benefits. As part of this series, participants will learn about the relationship between anxiety and thinking styles, in which participants understand how their thoughts, emotions, and behavior are linked. Participants will also learn about mindfulness, practice techniques and how to incorporate into daily routine. In addition, participants will learn relaxation techniques that bring calmness and grounding to them. Participants will also learn how to improve sleep, impact of food on anxiety, and other resources available at Counseling Services for anxiety management.

Students are welcome to select any of the workshops listed and repeat any of the YGT workshops. Space is limited, and students are encouraged to reserve their spot now.

YGT schedule for Fall 2020
Mondays, 2:10 – 3:00 pm (Mindfulness), Facilitator: Renee Lopez
Tuesdays, 2:10 - 3:00 pm (Coping with Emotions), Facilitator: Hanna Song
Wednesdays, 11:00 – 11:50 am (Self-Care), Facilitator: Renee Lopez
Fridays, 11:00 – 11:50 am (Coping with Anxiety), Facilitator: Jon Schlinger

For the Fall 2020 quarter, all YGT workshops will take place remotely using an online platform.
Sign up for YGT workshops: Via HEM
    Students can select the workshop option on the left side of the main HEM page and then choose the workshop they want to sign up for.
    To access HEM: https://shcs.ucdavis.edu/hem
    This information is located on our SHCS website, under Resources - Health e messaging.

Start Date:    October 5, 2020
End Date:     December 11, 2020
YGT does not run during finals week.